

Introductory Lectures to Conduct Research in Japan

The lectures will introduce you to laws and regulations that must be complied with to work on experiments involving pathogens or human samples in Japan. There will be an introduction to the Genome Information Research Center of Research Institute for Microbial Diseases (RIMD), which is open for scientists to use its facilities.

Date: 10:20 - 16:00, April 24, 2019

Venue: Taniguchi Memorial Hall, 1st floor Integrated Life Science Building, Suita Campus

Eligible person: Members of Osaka University

Language: English

Registration: Email to Tomoki Sueyoshi (sueyoshi@ifrec.osaka-u.ac.jp)

-
- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 10:20-10:50 | Animal experiments at IFReC / RIMD Assistant Professor Haruhiko Miyata (RIMD) |
| 11:15-11:35 | Earthquakes Associate Professor Akihiko Takagi (IFReC) |
| 13:00-13:30 | Ethical guidelines for medical research involving human subjects
Associate Professor Akihiko Takagi (IFReC) |
| 13:30-13:50 | Research misconduct and misuse of research funds
Associate Professor Jun Sakanoue (IFReC) |
| 14:05-14:35 | Laboratory biosafety Professor Kazuhiro Suzuki (IFReC) |
| 15:20-15:40 | Genome Information Research Center of RIMD
Mr. John Rozewicki (RIMD) |
| 15:40-16:00 | Security export control Associate Professor Sachiko Yamakoshi (University Research Board) |

A certificate can be issued for the lectures , , and .

Inquiry : General Affairs Section, Immunology Frontier Research Center (IFReC)
menekigaku-soumuse@office.osaka-u.ac.jp

Host : Immunology Frontier Research Center (IFReC)

Cooperation : Research Institute for Microbial Diseases (RIMD)

大阪大学
OSAKA UNIVERSITY

